TOD WHEELER'S PARTNERS.

In the village church of Comfort, just a few miles west of Hutto, is a very poor specimen of the now rare "wheel of fortune." It is made of wood, with a rim of bells on its outer rim and pivoted between a couple of rough beams above the very primitive ceiling. By means of a cord attached to a central wheel, the wheel can be made to revolve, and all the bells ring. I have often heard that the popular belief is that it has神奇 power of healing when rung by a person who has placed a coin in the box to which the wheel is attached. I received definite confirmation of this belief, for while making a photograph a well to do elderly wife and her husband came from the country and looked round. The woman seemed ill. I thought there was no way truth in this belief, so her child was very benighted in Hutto to tell her that she had better let the wheel run, as the bells were worth ringing. —London Chronicle.

THE GENEVA WINE.

In the last generation Col. Colby, was a well known citizen of New Bedford, now Boston Mass. He was Doctor throughout Plymouth county for his early years and dry master.

Never having taken a sea trip, Mr. Colby one day conceived the idea of making a voyage to New York. As suddenly as it came, it went from him to a small schooner. The ship lay out, a storm was encountered and Mr. Colby became violently sick, but after several hours he recovered his courage and strength to look out upon the troubled waters.

He looked from the side of the little ship up the trough of the sea. It seemed very smooth to him. The captain's calling of the waves was seductive, he told himself. But as this mad steering continued the unhappy passenger steadily crawled out on deck and knees to where the captain stood at the wheel and, raising his voice above the din of waves and wind, shouted:

"Man, man, keep in the ruts, keep in the ruts!"

WORKED IT OUT.

Just what may happen to a man who isn't strictly honest was illustrated on a street car a few days ago. A man handed the conductor a dollar and asked for a strip of tickets. He received his five tickets, and then the conductor fumbled around for change and managed to make a "mistake." He handed the man two half dollars instead of 25 cents. The man put away the money without saying a word and in a couple of minutes worked his way to the front of the car and got off. "Say, conductor," said an interested observer, "did you know you didn't give that man the right change?" "That's all right," he said.

"If I'd been honest and returned that bad half dollar I'd have given him a good quarter for it. I've been trying to get rid of that piece of money for a week. I guess he deserved to get some."—Philadelphia Record.

THE KAFFEEKLATSCH.

The difference between a 5 o'clock tea and a German Kaffeeklatsch is enormous. The tea is a pleasant go-as-you-please meeting, where we balance our teacups in hand perilously handicapped by our infinitesimal possessors, augmented by the frail saucer on which a top-lighter piece of cake finds an insecure resting place. We may enjoy a variety of creature comforts augmented by fees and caps-on festive occasions.

Not so the German Kaffeeklatsch. That is a ponderous affair which you take sitting at tables. Coffee and various marks mark the beginning of the meal, followed by numberless cakes which the Germans know so well how to make. This is followed by some creamy preparation or a beautiful device made in ice. This again is succeeded by the choicest fruits.

The Kaffeekanne is meanwhile still busily plying its trade. There is a well known German song which ends with the refrain, freely translated: "Thank you, thank you, hostess mine. I never drink more cups than nine."—London Queen.

NO CASE ON RECORD.

"Brooks," asked Rivers, "do you know what will cure a wart?"

"I never heard of a wart being sick," said Brooks, without looking up from his writing.
